VOL. III. NO. 82.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

GOOD HORSES AT INDIANA.

It has begun to liven up and look like racing times around the Indiana tracks. Horses are arriving from New Orleans and other points, and right now nearly all of the stable room is occupied or spoken for.

Foster Bros. with twenty-one from Madison, Ill., W. H. Roller with his New Orleans string, L. Deardoff with Sen. Merrill, J. R. Hand with Ella Penzance and five others, and G. C. Moshier with that good mare May Galop and six others are among the recent arrivals. All of the horses that wintered at the track are fit to race right now, and the outlook for a successful fifteen days meeting at Forsyth could not be brighter.

Foster's horses are perhaps the most far advanced and as his string is one of class they should be given special attention during the early stages of the meeting. Here is a list of the Foster lot: Dr. Rice, Dorian, Counter Tenor, Gotham, Abuse, Dr. Sheppard, Out of Sight, Confession, Caulfield, Sullross, Lollie Eastin, Lon Jones, May Hobson, four two-year-olds, and Mattie Long, the dam of Sullross, who has a yearling by Dr. Rice and is heavy with foal to the same horse.

Dr. Rice, Counter Tenor and Dorian will be given special "preps" for their Eastern engagements. Jockey Barrett has been engaged for the coming season by the Fosters. He got in yesterday.

The general report from New Orleans horsemen is not favorable. It is reported that fifteen carloads of horses were to leave that point, but only four could get away.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The rule of intolerance is in the land and is especially pointed against racing. The movement is rural but strong, and racing folks—both breeders and owners—had best fit their goods to the possibilities of their use. The Illinois closure of the past two years cost a sterling industry millions of dollars. Now Wisconsin is hedged in. With it the Indiana field is more than circumscribed. The eager and too public speculative side of racing is responsible for it all. It was too eager and too public. Its troubles and losses should learn it a lesson. The Indiana tracks will only race forty-five days in 1897, with thirty days between each meeting.

There is a chance that the present Illinois legislature, wiser than the last, will pass a limited racing law. It has two within its hands: the Kilcourse sixty days measure and that of Senator Harding—a thirty days racing proposition. The latter is best within the line of present public opinion. It prohibits foreign pooling and legalizes only betting on local races. Should either measure please the Illinois body enough to be adopted Chicago will have a short term of high class racing at Washington Park, Hawthorne and Harlem this year. There is a good chance that a considerate Illinois law will be created. If temperately treated it will be the legal wedge that will make racing in Chicago as glorious as it was before the reign of terror began in 1895.

The McConnell stable is said to have won a lot of money over Lizzie Cavalier's victory at Newport last Thursday. The filly, by Cavalier, out of Charles McDonald's dam, Lizzie Flynn—McDonald is by Rapture—outwoked all the early ones at the Indiana colony? So DAILY RACING FORM reported. It also told of McConnell's use of the starting machine in training. The courts had to aid Lizzie Cavalier's start. C. A. Richcreek, who has been several times in trouble with racing authorities, and is on the "ruled off" list, mixes in with the McConnell stable training.

Richcreek's last alleged irregularity was about Linnette last fall. On account of Richcreek the McConnell entries were barred at Newport. An injunction by Judge Moore allowed Lizzie Cavalier to start.

A Turf Congress committee and representative delegation of breeders held a conference at Newport, Ky., Thursday and reached a conclusion about the pedigree matter in a reasonable way, though the conclusion is not yet official. The agreement adopted provides that in the future a horse will be permitted to race on Turf Congress tracks only when it is established that such horse has five uncontaminated thoroughbred crosses, or that he authentically traces only through and to animals duly recorded in the first five volumes of the American stud book, or a recognized stud book of another country provided the aggregate fees for registering any one animal for racing or breeding purposes shall not exceed two dollars.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Harry Shannon race, No. 7260, at Little Rock, March 31, was at 6, not 6½ furlongs, as a typographical error made it. The error, however, was one of the Little Rock programme, not corrected by the reporters.

Algol struck himself in his work at Memphis a few days ago and has been indulged so far as work is concerned since the mishap.

If H. & K. and one other anonymous enquirer B. will send their names to this office they shall have full answers to their queries.
